Dear Federal Election Commission:

With regard to the above-referenced Candidate and three Committees, we would like to terminate the first two Committees and change the name of the third. More specifically, what we are seeking is:

Schneider for Congress (C00374751) – Termination
Friends of Jan Schneider (C00392183) – Termination
Friends of Jan Schneider 2008 (C00447474) – Name Change.

1. Schneider for Congress (C00374751). To repeat, we would like to terminate Schneider for Congress, established for the 2002 election cycle. This Committee, which has continued timely reporting through the present, shows debts and obligations plus loans totaling $100,008.64.

Of the debts and obligations of $46,508.64, $8,895.75 is shown as owed to the Candidate, another $858.98 to the Committee itself (for "Sprint cell phones") and $16,214.28 in total to Foley & Lardner. The first is being relieved, forgiven and/or written off as bad debt by the Candidate, and the second is a bill from Sprint that was paid in full by the Candidate. The third, Foley & Lardner debt, was for representation in connection with MUR No. 5350; the firm billed this to the Candidate, and the statement was paid in full. Accordingly, $25,969.21 of the debts and obligations are actually owed to and being relieved, forgiven and/or written off as bad debt by the Candidate. No one other than the Candidate has made any payments for, on behalf of or relating to the Committee.

With three exceptions, the rest of the debts have also been paid in full:

- The first exception relates to alleged debt to Xpedit in the amount of $4,985.52 marked "Robocalls – disputed in part." As was reported to the FEC in connection with the audit of this Committee in 2003 and with MUR No. 5350, Xpedit apparently billed to this Committee some work done for another campaign; when that was straightened out, the
